THE CHRISTIAN RURAL FELLOWSHIP

156 Fifth Avenue

New York 10, N. Y.

FOREWORD

To The Members of The Christian Rural Fellowship:

Again and again we have received requests for an Index to the Christian Rural Fellowship Bulletins. A recent inquiry among members in various denominations indicates that the Bulletins are widely used for reference material in sermon preparation, by students for the preparation of term papers and graduate theses, and by professors in rural departments of colleges and theological seminaries.

We are glad to supply you herewith a complimentary copy of the Index. This has been prepared by Dr. Edward B. Hamner and students of Philips University at Enid, Oklahoma. When we realize that there are now 196 Bulletins dealing with many different topics, we can understand the vast amount of patient study Dr. Hamner and his students have given to this important task. The Christian Rural Fellowship is therefore deeply indebted to those who have prepared this as an expression of their interest in the Christian Rural Fellowship and its services.

It is hoped that the Index will be useful to all who have been accustomed to using the Bulletins for study and reference material. A number of the denominations have contributed toward the printing cost and for that reason the Executive Committee of the Christian Rural Fellowship takes pleasure in presenting this complimentary copy to present members.
